Notable Calls:

On 7/13/19, Officer Sheri Fyle heard a broadcast come across the radio of a report of an intoxicated female that left a bar in Nisswa in an unknown direction. Officer Fyle located the vehicle as it turned northbound on Patriot Ave from Hwy 371. Officer Fyle developed probable cause to stop the vehicle and made contact with the driver. Officer Fyle had the female driver step out of the vehicle to perform field sobriety testing and take a PBT test. The female failed both tests and was arrested for 3rd Degree DWI and Disorderly Conduct. The vehicle is being held pending forfeiture. Part time officer Brad Peters assisted Officer Fyle.

On 7/14/19, Officer Matt Jorgens was working a TZD shift in the Deerwood area when he observed a vehicle cross the center line and appear to be traveling at a high rate of speed. Officer Jorgens recognized the vehicle and identified it by its license plate, as having been the suspect vehicle in a theft earlier in the day at the Dollar General store in Pequot Lakes. Ultimately, a female passenger was arrested for 5th Degree Possession of Controlled Substance. Long form Theft charges are pending on the female passenger and female driver. Officer Jorgens was assisted by Officer Ryan Franz, a Brainerd officer and a CWC deputy.
