Notable Calls:

On 2/8/20, Officer Sheri Fyle responded to an address in Jenkins to a report of an assault. Officer Fyle arrived and located the victim in the kitchen and took his statement. Officer Fyle then located the female suspect in a bedroom. The male victim was transported to the hospital and the female was ultimately arrested for 3rd Degree Assault.

On 2/11/20, Officer Ryan Franz was made aware by the office manager that there was a vehicle release appointment that day and the male coming to pick up the vehicle had a cancelled license. Officer Franz and the office manager observed a truck park on Main Street west of the police department. A short time later, the male and two females walked down the sidewalk and in to city hall. One of the females had a valid license and all three parties left in the vehicle. While the vehicle was being released, Officer Franz had left the office to go to the school. He witnessed the females drop the male off at a truck parked on Rasmussen Rd. The male was issued a citation for Driving After Cancellation.

On 2/23/20, Officer Kate Petersen responded to a snowmobile on fire in the ditch. Pequot Lakes Fire was paged and distinguished the fire. The driver stated the fire started under the hood while he was riding on the trail. There were no injuries.
